Pembroke
Festival
2008

Welcome to the Pembroke Festival 2008. This sixth annual festival will provide a backdrop of entertainment for the flotillas of heritage boats visiting Castle Pond during Sea Fair Milford Haven 2008. Most importantly, however, the events will showcase local talent and be a reason for the community to come together to celebrate Pembroke's unique sense of place.

Following comments and suggestions made at a well attended open meeting last November, the new Festival Group agreed to change the dates of the Festival so that local schools could be involved, and the weather and the long light evenings would bring people outside. We also wanted to provide a better structure and theme for the events and to encourage and enable more community involvement.

We hope that we have addressed these issues with a programme of events over four days that will provide something for all ages, tastes and interests. There will be a schools programme with two weeks of workshops leading up the Festival.

Welcome to Pembroke Festival

The main events, based on our historic South Quay, will go on until 11pm and, appropriately, the theme is maritime.

The Festival will begin, promptly, at 5.30pm on Thursday 19th June when maroons will go up to start a spectacular procession led by a huge sculpture of Poseidon made, as ever, by the fantastic Sand Palace Arts. He will be followed by local school children carrying sea monsters and fish and accompanied by local musicians.

Over the following three days you will be able to enjoy music in all forms, dance, drama, talks, pavement art, food and drink, model boats, walks, bike rides, competitions, quizzes, photos, exhibitions, circus skills and, of course, boats, boats and more boats! Most of the events are free to make them accessible to everyone.

We want the town's shops to dress their windows for a Best Dressed Shop competition on the theme, and anyone and everyone is invited to dress up as pirates - there will be prizes for the most outrageous costumes. We will bedeck the town with bunting and our distinctive lamp post banners.

The Festival will end late on the evening of Sunday 22nd June with music from Wonderbrass - the boldest funkiest band in Wales, and a firework spectacular from the Castle ramparts. So make a date to join us from 19th to 22nd June - let's celebrate!

The Pembroke Festival Group

Croeso i Wyl Penfro

Croeso i Wyl Penfro 2008. Bydd y chweched wyl flynyddol hon yn gefnfen o adloniant i'r llyngesau bach o gychod treftadaeth a fydd yn ymweld â Phwll y Castell yn ystod Gŵyl Fôr Aberdaugleddau 2008. Yn bwysicach na hynny, fodd bynnag, bydd y digwyddiadau yn rhoi sylw i ddoniau lleol a byddant yn rheswm i'r gymuned ddod at ei gilydd i ddathlu yr ymdeimlad unigryw o le a geir yn Sir Benfro.

Yn dilyn sylwadau ac awgrymiadau a gafwyd mewn cyfarfod digon llawn fis Tachwedd diwethaf, cytunodd grŵp newydd yr wyl i newid dyddiadau'r wyl fel y gallai ysgolion lleol gymryd rhan, ac y gallai'r tywydd a'r nosweithiau golau, hir dynnu pobl allan. Roedd arnom ni hefyd eisiau cynnig gwell fframwaith a thema i'r digwyddiadau ac annog a galluogi mwy o ymwneud gan y gymuned.

Gobeithiwn inni fynd i'r afael â'r materion hyn wrth gyflwyno rhaglen o ddigwyddiadau dros bedwar diwrnod a fydd yn cynnig rhywbeth i bob oed, chwaeth a diddordeb. Bydd yna raglen i'r ysgolion gyda phythefnos o weithdai yn arwain at yr wyl. Bydd y prif ddigwyddiadau, wedi'u canoli ar Gei'r De, sydd mor hanesyddol, yn parhau tan 11pm, ac yn ddigon addas, morwrol fydd y thema.

Bydd yr wyl yn dechrau, yn brydlon, am 5.30pm Ddydd Iau 19 Mehefin pan fydd ffrwydron yn cael eu tanio i ddechrau gorymdaith ysblennydd yn cael ei harwain gan gerflun enfawr o Poseidon, wedi ei wneud, fel pob tro, gan Sand Palace Arts. Caiff ei ddilyn gan blant ysgol lleol yn cludo angenffilod môr a physgod a hynny i gyfeiliant cerddorion lleol.

Dros y tridiau wedyn cewch fwynhau cerddoriaeth o bob math, dawnys, drama, sgyrsiau, celf y palmant, bwyd a diod, cychod model, teithiau cerdded, teithiau beicio, cystadlaethau, cwisiau, ffotograffau, arddangosfeydd, sgiliau syrcais ac, wrth gwrs, cychod, cychod a mwy o gychod! Bydd y rhan fwyaf o'r digwyddiadau yn rhad ac am ddim fel eu bod ar gael i bawb.

Rydym am i siopau'r dref wisgo'u ffenestri ar gyfer cystadleuaeth y Ffenest Siop Orau ar y thema, a gwahoddir pawb i wisgo amdanynt fel môr-ladron - bydd gwobrau am y gwisgoedd mwyaf dros ben llestri. Byddwn yn gosod fflagiau dros y dref i gyd a'r baneri nodweddiadol sydd gyda ni, ar y polion lampau.

Daw'r wyl i ben yn hwyr nos Sul 22 Mehefin gyda cherddoriaeth gan Wonderbrass - y band mwyaf beiddgar a ffyni yng Nghymru, a sioe dân gwyllt ysblennydd oddi ar furiau'r Castell.

Felly nodwch y dyddiad i ymuno â ni rhwng 19 a 22 Mehefin - gadewch inni ddathlu!

Admission Free

The Bells of St Mary's – outside Pembroke Town Hall

12 noon to 1pm - With instruments dating back to the 1870's the Handbell Ringers of St Mary's Church are keeping alive a traditional form of music. The church records tell of a group of handbells being played for a concert in the late 1870's and it is possible that some of the bells are the same that will be used today.

Carreg Las Welsh Border Morris Dancers – Start at St Michael's Square

12.30pm to 2pm -

Their painted faces, rag jackets and rough sticks, peculiar to the tradition of Border Morris, are a disguise used to avoid recognition by clergy and gentry as the performers collected monies in times of need. Beware!

Starting at St Michael's Square and proceeding down Main Street to dance at the South Quay.

Tanyard Youth Project Open Day – Tanyard, Pembroke Commons

12.30pm to 4pm - Tanyard welcome you in to see what they have achieved over the past year as well as an exhibition of art based on a sea life theme - look out for the huge shark! There will also be stalls from local artists, jewellers and crafts people. Tanyard evening members have made recycled linen bags screen printed with the Festival logo and their own original design – collectors' items. Refreshments will be sold.

The Best Dressed Shop Competition – Judging by Town Councilors from 2pm

From 2pm - Pembroke's shops and traders have been invited to dress their fronts and windows in the maritime heritage theme – why not take a stroll while you shop and see if you can spot the winner. There will also be a shop window quiz for children available for collection from the Town Hall.

Design, make and sail a model boat – Castle Pond, South Quay Slipway

2pm to 4pm - Work in teams of 4 to design and make a model boat using as much recycled material as possible and sail it without electric or battery powered motors. Teams will be judged on the design and materials of the boat (to be made before the Festival) and the distance it sails on the Castle Pond today.

Run by Sue John of Almond Learning.

Application forms available from the Festival Office.

Open to teams of four - ages 9 to 18

Mucking about on the Mill Ponds

Afternoon - Pembrokeshire Paddlers, based on the Pembroke South Quay, are experienced canoeists and kayak paddlers. Have a go yourself – all equipment provided but best to wear swimwear or bring a change of clothes!

Young Bands - South Quay stage

2pm to 6pm - selection of aspiring local talent new to the Pembrokeshire music scene

5pm - Deadline for entries to be delivered to Pembroke Town Hall

wriggly-tin.com

The Rime of the Ancient Mariner - South Quay Stage

6pm to 7pm - a dramatic reading by East End Flyover Company with musical accompaniment by The Old Salts. The well loved East End Flyover Company is back. Known throughout the County, the group has been performing since the 1980's bringing pantomimes, mystery plays, musicals, mummings' plays, comedies, farces and serious drama to the local stage. Samuel Taylor Coleridge's narrative poem tells the story of how evil acts affect our lives but also offers the hope of redemption through love.

Saturday Night is R&B – South Quay Stage

7pm to 11pm - Local R&B bands including Cottonmouth

India Dance Wales - Kalidasa Pembroke Town Hall

7.30pm (Doors open 7.00pm) - We are delighted to welcome once again India Dance Wales, who charmed us with the classical style of Bharata Natyam at the Festival in 2004. Kiran Ratna who is the founder and artistic director of this highly respected, innovative company will take a part in the performance of classical, authentic, dance, music and narration inspired by the works of Kalidasa, India's greatest Sanskrit poet and dramatist, whose writings were largely based on Hindu Mythology and Philosophy. Prepare to be enchanted.

Following a mesmerising performance for us last year Azin Marzabadi, from Iran, will be opening the evening by playing the Daf, a spiritual drum that she teaches in her homeland. Interval. Bar & light refreshment.

Tickets £8 - Children 10 yrs & under £6

Charge of £5 to hire bikes with helmets, locks and visibility jackets. (Free if you bring your own bike etc.)

Circus Malarkey – South Quay

12pm to 2pm - With their customary wacky walkabout style Circus Malarkey are into making things happen and having fun. Join them on the South Quay for two hours of workshops and performance including juggling, clowning, unicycling, stilt walking and, doubtless, other amazing antics.

Let's Go Fly a Kite with Sand Palace Arts – Pembroke Town Hall

1pm to 3pm - This imaginative and idiosyncratic group of artists has worked with the Pembroke Festival since it began. This year in addition to workshops in schools to make sea monsters for our opening procession, they are leading a kite making workshop. Afterwards, participants will be able to fly their kites on the Pembroke Commons. Booking is essential. Children under 10 must be accompanied by a responsible adult. £2 per child to pay on the day.

Food & Drink

Food and drink on the South Quay:

The Royal George pub on the South Quay will be open throughout the afternoons and evenings serving soft and alcoholic drinks

Cegin Crincae will be serving wild boar burgers and heritage breed sausages in buns. Also delicious filled crepes.

Rory O'Donnell – Freshly baked potatoes with Welsh Black Beef Stew and other tasty fillings.

If you would like to sit while you eat we recommend:

The Cornstore Café is just across the bridge from the South Quay stage and will be open for coffee and delicious cakes. At lunchtime they will be serving a special Festival menu of fresh, locally caught fish as part of their Pembrokeshire Fish Week celebrations.

The Old Kings Arms Hotel in Pembroke Main Street is the Town's oldest hostelry dating back to the 1520s. The restaurant holds the 2008 Good Food Guide Award and serves excellent bar food as well as a restaurant menu.

The Waterman's Arms on the other side of the Mill Bridge have an outside seating area overlooking the Mill Pond and serve good bar meals.

In addition Pembroke has numerous cafés, pubs and restaurants in and around Main Street - take a break in one of them and browse our local shops as well.

Thank You!

Diolch yn fawr!

The members of the Festival Group would like to thank everyone who has helped them to make the 2008 Pembroke Festival happen – the performers, banner makers, volunteers and stewards, partner organisations, advertisers, friends, schools, churches, local pubs, restaurants, shops and businesses and, of course, the local community of Pembroke who come out to support, participate in and – we hope – enjoy the events.

In addition we could not stage the events in this programme without the expert assistance of Andy Evans and his staff at Monddi Dimond Press, Paul Brockway Electrician, Bruce Campbell Sound, Sand Palace Arts, and the co-operation and hospitality of the Pembroke Castle Trustees. We also have a special thanks to Gwen Griffiths who takes, voluntarily, all the stunning photos of the events each year that are used in our publicity and in this programme.

Most especially we would like to thank our sponsors – Chevron Pembroke Refinery who is the main sponsor of the Pembroke Festival, Pembroke Town Council who are also our hosts, Pembrokeshire County Council Arts Grant, the Milford Haven Port Authority and Sea Fair Milford Haven 2008, RWE nPower, Dragon LNG, Wriggly-tin.com, Arts Council for Wales and the Welsh Assembly Government.

Other organisations which sponsor Pembroke 21C projects that are involved in the Festival are Heritage Lottery Fund, Steps2Health, Sports Council of Wales and Environment Wales.

The Pembroke Festival Group is a sub-group of Pembroke 21C Community Association. Pembroke 21C reserves the right to cancel or postpone any event or performance listed in this programme due to circumstances beyond their control or due to inclement weather.

Hoffai aelodau Grŵp yr ŷyl ddiolch i bawb sydd wedi eu cynorthwyo i wireddu Gŷyl Penfro 2008 – y perfformwyr, y gwneuthurwyr baneri, gwirfoddolwyr a stiwardiaid, cyrff partneriaeth, hysbysebwy, cyfeillion, ysgolion, eglwysi, tafarndai, tai bwyta, siopau a busnesau lleol ac, wrth gwrs, y gymuned leol ym Mhenfro a ddaw allan i gefnogi, cymryd rhan a chael blas – gobeithio – ar y digwyddiadau.

Yn ychwanegol at hyn ni allem lwyfanu'r digwyddiadau yn y rhaglen hon heb gymorth arbenigol Andy Evans a'i staff yn Monddi Dimond Press, Paul Brockway Trydanwr, Bruce Campbell Dyn Sain, Sand Palace Arts, a chydweithrediad a chroeso Ymddiriedolwyr Castell Penfro. Mae arnom ni ddiolch arbennig i Gwen Griffiths fydd, yn wirfoddol, yn tynnu'r holl luniau trawiadol o'r digwyddiadau bob blwyddyn a ddefnyddir yn ein cyhoeddusrwydd.

Yn fwyaf arbennig hoffem ddiolch i'n noddwyr – Purfa Chevron Penfro sy'n brif noddwr Gŷyl Penfro, Cyngor Tref Penfro sydd hefyd yn rhoi lle inni, Grant Celfyddydau Cyngor Sir Penfro, Awurdod Porthladd Aberdaugleddau a Ffair Fôr Aberdaugleddau 2008, RWE nPower, Dragon LNG, Wriggly-tin.com, Cyngor Celfyddydau Cymru a Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru. Cyrff eraill sy'n noddi prosiectau Penfro 21G yw Cronfa Dreftadaeth y Loteri, Steps2Health, Cyngor Chwaraeon Cymru ac Amgylchedd Cymru.

Mae Grŵp Gŷyl Penfro yn is-grŵp o Gymdeithas Cymuned Penfro 21C.

Mae Penfro 21C yn cadw'r hawl i ganslo neu ohirio unrhyw ddigwyddiad neu berfformiad a restrir yn y rhaglen hon oherwydd amgylchiadau y tu hwnt i'w rheolaeth neu oherwydd tywydd garw.
